

Explore The Magic of Transparent Watercolor: April 15 - May 27 -2017

Learn a new way of seeing and at the same time expand your painting skills in this new and exciting six (6) week painting series designed and instructed by award winning Beverly Fields. Fields connects traditional watercolor methods to the exciting world of experimental techniques that are exclusive to the medium. These popular classes include a range of techniques and other special effects with emphasis on design and color harmony.

Saturdays April 15 - May 27, 2017; Beginners 9:00AM - 12:00 PM; Advanced 1:00PM - 4:00 PM

Location: Sacramento Fine Art Center: 5530-B Gibbons Dr. Carmichael , CA.

Attendance is limited, so to reserve your place now with a non-refunded $20.00 deposit. A supply list will be provided at sign up. Class Fee is $190.00. Balance of payment due by 1st. day of class. Please mail your deposit to:

Beverly Fields - 7301 Green Valley Rd, Placerville 95667: Phone: 530-748-9530. Cell: 530-748-9530

BEVERLY FIELDS is an award winning artist, whose experience spans over 40 years. She has received wide acclaim for her water color paintings that are best described as impressionistic with an abstract clarity. Fields began her popular workshops in 1990 and is known for her paint along style. Beverly exhibits her paintings in in Iron Willow Gallery Placerville, Highlight Gallery Mendocino, Shore Birds Tiburon, Brush Strokes Carmel and the World Trade Center Dallas, Texas. Fields is proud to be featured in the "Splash 16 publication Exploring Textures."