

Judge: Roberta Rousos

I am a mixed media sculptor. I returned to college at California State University Sacramento to discover new paths in creative expression after the passing of my husband. My three adult children supported my decision and added to my resolve. The process of earning my Bachelors (2012) and my Masters degrees (May 2014) showed me how strong I could be and where my life's passion lies.

I work intuitively, rarely starting with more than a general vision, but intuition can only point the way. We must be willing to put in the effort; we must choose to follow the path and then figure out why we were compelled to go there.
