

Themed Open Juried Regional Exhibition Art Where Wild Things Are™

Broad and creative interpretations of life in our LOCAL NATURAL world.

REQUIREMENTS: Open to all artists 16 and older. Online entry fee $15 per artwork, limit 3 artworks (non-refundable). Submit only recent work, finished within the last four years. All artwork must be for sale. Work must be original artwork not previously shown at Sacramento Fine Arts Center (SFAC). Watermedia, Oil/Acrylic/Soft Pastel, Graphics/Pencil/Pen & Ink/Hard Pastel, Mixed Media, Textile and Sculpture and new this year, Photography. No copies, no class or workshop artwork, crafts or work by any commercial printing process or video/film. No giclees. SIZE LIMIT: 46" wide for 2 dimensional art. Work with glass must have rigid gallery style framing. We suggest plain frames with neutral mats. Work exceeding 29" X 35" (1015 sq. inches) must use plastic instead of glass glazing. No unfinished canvas edges, protruding nails, staples or saw-tooth hangers. Use braided wire and flat brackets to attach wire. Tape wire ends. Diptychs, Triptychs, etc. must be connected, wired and ready to hang. Place name, title and phone number on the back of each art work. Three dimensional and assembled works must be stable and safe for viewing. There is no size limit. The artist will be called to assist installation on extremely heavy works. SELECTION AND SALES: The judges will select artwork for the show from the entries. Each accepted artist receives 1 Gala ticket. After the exhibit at SFAC closes, the artwork will be transferred to the Gala and Auction at Effie Yeaw Nature Center (EYNC) and will be sold at live and silent auctions. Bids will begin at 40% of stated price. Artists will split sale 50/50 with ARNHA for EYNC at Gala. It is expected all art will sell

Work left after one month becomes the property of SFAC. STATEMENT OF LIABILITY: The Sacramento Fine Arts Center and ARNHA (Effie Yeaw Nature Center) will be diligent in care of artwork but is not responsible for loss or damage that might occur. Insurance is the responsibility of each artist. Any work containing unacceptable materials may be withdrawn by the SFAC and the ARNHA Board of Directors.

About Art Where Wild Things Are

Originally called Painting Where the Wild Things Are, this juried art exhibit and auction was conceived in 2009 by Carol Doersch, an American River Natural History Association founding member, as an art based fundraiser for the Effie Yeaw Nature Center.

Ms. Doersch sought out David Peterson and others of the Sacramento Fine Arts Center for assistance in making her vision a reality. SFAC soon became a partner in the project.

Judges

William Ishmael

William Ishmael has been a painter for the last 25 years, beginning with watercolor landscapes and progressing to large abstracts utilizing latex paint, sand, organic materials, and the natural elements of the weather to achieve the weathered, multilayered effects on many of his canvases. His primary focus has been on commissioned work and he has an outstanding list of clients and is widely praised for the way in which his paintings enhance his client's homes and offices.

William's accomplishments include being named Sacramento Art and Business Council's "Artist of the Year" for 2011 and, in 2014, having a work accepted by SMAC for permanent installation in the Sacramento County Administration Building. www.iamishmael.com

Merle Axelrad

Merle Axelrad's fabric collages are in numerous public, corporate, and private collections including those of the Ritz-Carlton, Kaiser Permanente, the University of California at Davis Medical Center, and the California Environmental Protection Agency. In addition, her work has been featured in exhibitions at museums and galleries, including the Denno's Art Museum in Traverse City, Michigan; the California State Museum in Sacramento; and Entrée Libre in New York City. <http://axelradart.com>

Paulette Trainor

For more than 25 years, Paulette Trainor, ASID, has been recognized as one of Northern California's finest and most creative interior designers. Paulette has received numerous awards and recognitions for her design accomplishments, as well as her philanthropic work. Paulette is also a color consultant, having received her certification from the "International Association of Color Consultants North America, the only person in Sacramento to have earned that distinction. <http://pauletterainor.com>

YES, I wish to participate in the Open Juried Art Show at Sacramento Fine Arts Center and Effie Yeaw Nature Center Gala and Art Auction.

By signing this agreement, I agree to a 50% commission for sales. I will allow my art work to be transferred to the EYNC and to be sold at auction on June 10, 2017 at the Gala and Art Auction Event. Bids will begin at 40% of your stated price. I realize that this art show is a fundraiser for ARNHA (Effie Yeaw Nature Center).

I understand that I will receive 50% of proceeds of the sale price. I realize that the auction of my juried art at this event may not sell at my stated price. Please don't inflate your prices above your normal gallery selling price.

OPTIONAL: I would like to donate 100% of my proceeds to ARNHA (Effie Yeaw Nature Center). Standard tax regulations apply.

By submitting work, the artist agrees to abide by the Exhibit Rules and waives any and all claims of every kind and nature to the Sacramento Fine Arts Center (SFAC), American River Natural History Association (ARNHA) and Effie Yeaw Nature Center. The artwork may be reproduced for promotional use.

By signing below, I acknowledge I have read and agree with the requirements for entry in this prospectus.
